FLORENT KLOCKENBRING

Sound Recordist · Sound Editor · Mixer

Languages: English, Spanish

BIOGRAPHY

Born in 1980 in Kinshasa, I grew up in Ouagadougou, where I discovered cinema as a regular moviegoer. An improvising musician (saxophone, guitar, electronics), I turned early toward questions of sound design in relation to image.

I graduated from the École Louis Lumière in Paris in 2003, and have since worked as a sound recordist, head sound editor and mixer for fiction and documentary film.

Alongside this, I have taken part in writing and directing films with Natacha Samuel since 2004. Together we conceived and directed Gam Gam, a feature documentary shot in Ouagadougou, produced and distributed by Shellac (2015). In 2025, we completed our first fiction feature, Peter Pan, in Marseille, produced by Perspective Films.

Since 2017, I have taught theoretical and practical courses on film sound at Université Paris 8 – Vincennes, and supervise shoots for Master's 1 and 2 and Bachelor's 3 Cinema students, for 2 to 5 weeks a year.

Since 2024, I have been the managing director of Les films Serendipity, which has been producing films since 2012.

I work between Marseille and Paris.
